にほんごテーブル NIHONGO Table

Let's enjoy talking and also learn to read and write Nihongo !

Nihongo Table is an opportunity for international researchers, students and their spouses in which you can meet people living in this neighborhood. You can enjoy talking with us in Japanese and practice how to read and write hiragana, katakana and kanji using your favorite textbook. Also you may get useful information for your stay in Japan and life in this neighborhood.

※ Nihongo Table is organized by a group of voluntary local residents "Takenoko Nihongo Koryukai" that works in cooperation with Center for International Education and Exchange of Osaka University.

At Nihongo Table you can;

1. Enjoy conversation in Japanese and practice hiragana, katakana and kanji
2. Join cultural activities such as tea ceremony, karuta (Japanese card game), etc.
3. Meet international colleagues at Osaka University
4. Introduce yourself or your country and share your culture with other participants
5. Get useful informations that makes your life and stay easier and more comfortable
