JAcc 300 (2 Credits): Online Intensive Program (Intermediate Japanese)

The purpose of JAcc 300 is three fold. One is to review the different structures and vocabularies that students learned in elementary level while making use of them in different contexts so that students can establish a foundation for practical oral proficiency in Japanese.

Secondly, the course will give particular emphasis to establishing a solid foundation in practical written Japanese proficiency while learning approximately kanji and related kanji-words as well as different structures and grammatical forms that are necessary to formulate a logical explanatory discourse.

All in all, the course intends to build in students' practical oral and written proficiency in Japanese equivalent that reaches B2.1 (intermediate independent user) in CEFR scale or N3 in JLPT scale.
