Language of the Course	English
Learning Methods	Listening and watching face-to-face/online class: Listening and watching a lecture, video, or demonstration, face-to-face or via online (e.g., attending a face-to-face lecture, watching an on-demand video) Reading: Reading books and academic papers (e.g., summarizing an academic paper, reading information on a website) Discussion: Learning through question-and-answer interactions and exchanges of opinions among students and between students and the instructor (e.g., pair/group discussion, online chat, one-on-one guidance for writing an academic paper) Collaborative work: Working as a pair or a group (e.g., producing a poster through group work) Research: Collecting information from books and academic papers; gathering and analyzing data by fieldwork (e.g., review of previous research, fieldwork) Experience/practice: Learning from experience- and practice-based activities, and feedback on such activities (e.g., solving problems; laboratory work using instruments; on-campus and off-campus practical training; skills practice including sporting skills; project-based learning; internship) Presentation: Writing papers, making presentations, and creating works (e.g., report writing, oral/poster presentation, creation of works, portfolio development)
Course Objectives	This business English course will focus on more in-depth business-related topics. It comprises 15 business lessons, a variety of other business activities and then a final exam. By the end of the course, students should be able to communicate more confidently in all aspects of business. They should also be able to make a presentation in English, speak accurately and fluently in business related topics.
Learning Goals
Requirements, Prerequisites	Excellent communication skills and a creative mind. I presume students to have basic computer skills, including a working knowledge of word processing and spreadsheet software. An intermediate level of English is important to understand the business world.
Attendance and Student Conduct Policy	Please refer to the students handbook. I will discuss conduct policy in class.
