※About Course of Media Class
 "Course of Media Class" are classes in which more than half of the classes are held in places other than classrooms by making advanced use of various media.
 Undergraduate students can include up to 60 credits in media class course as requirements for graduation.
 Even if this is not the case, we may hold classes using the media.

| Course Objectives                     | This lecture is designed for students who wish to study critical readings on news stories (i.e. media literacy). In this series of lectures, not only theories of communication, but also the history of mass media in modern Japanese society will be discussed. In so doing, several aspects of the mass media will be studied, such as newspapers, broadcast (TV), magazine journalism, and so on. |                                                                                                                                                                                                |
