授業の目的と概要/Course Objective	This course examines the global mobility of students, faculty, institutions, and knowledge, and its impacts on higher education, society, and sustainable development (SDG 4). Students will learn theoretical perspectives such as agency theory, transformative learning, Freire's pedagogy, and theory of change, while exploring policy debates, international students' lived experiences, and post-graduation trajectories. Through films, readings, and field-based mini research, students will critically analyze the role of academic mobility in shaping individuals and societies.
履修条件・受講条件/Requirement / Prerequisite
出欠席及び受講に関するルール/Attendance and Student Conduct Policy	Active participation is essential. Attendance will be taken at each session. More than three unexcused absences may result in a lower grade. Students are expected to contribute respectfully to discussions and group activities.
