TAKENOKO NIHONGO TABLE

Do you want to learn the Japanese language? Would you like to learn something curious about the Japanese culture from real Japanese people? You can do all of it in TAKENOKO NIHONGO TABLE!

TAKENOKO NIHONGO TABLE is open for everyone: international students, researchers, and their families. It is organized by Takenoko Nihongo Kōryūkai, a group of native Japanese volunteers who partner with the center for International Education and Exchange in the University of Osaka. TAKENOKO NIHONGO TABLE's goal is to create a warm and welcoming international environment, support foreigners in their staying in Japan, and encourage cultural exchange!

What you will experience at TAKENOKO NIHONGO TABLE:
For example,

- Enjoy conversation in Nihongo (Japanese) with your Japanese partner.
- Get useful information that makes your life and stay easier and more comfortable.
